—So many townspeople having left for the exhibition, the town seems quiet.

—Mr. Richard Shore, hotelkeeper, Canton, has been spending a few days in town.

—About thirty left Qu'Appelle on Sunday night, taking advantage of the cheap excursion rate to visit the Winnipeg Exhibition.

—A. E. Ferte, the defaulting assistant controller, of Winnipeg, has been committed to the provincial jail to stand his trial at the next assizes.

—The wife of Mr. Palma Theoret, St. Germain, Quebec, a farmer, has given birth to triplets for the second time in five years, besides twins on three other occasions. Mrs. Theoret, who is thirty years of age, is the mother of seventeen children.

—The Macleod Sentinel expired with its first issue. Murphy, its printer, after borrowing money on a party in Macleod and failing to pay for the printing, came down on Saturday, and on Sunday morning took a trip pass on the south rail, forgetting to pay his hotel bill.—Lathbridge News.

—A serious prairie fire committed vic north-west of the town on nday night last. The farmers in e vicinity have now lost all their storage, which, together with a ort crop, is a very serious matter.
ad it not been for a timely shower
rain, all the hay at Egg Lake ould most undoubtedly have been cured.

—Mr. R. S. Jenkins, the well-known, popular and skilful Superintendent of the C.P.R. Co.'s Telephones, accompanied by his chief inspector, and chief line repairer, arrived on his private car last Friday evening. Mr. Jenkins has been inspecting his lines between Oakley and Fort Arthur. While in town, he was the guest of Mr. Arthur Gibbons. He left for the east on last Saturday morning.

—If there is anything that you want to buy; if there is anything that you have lost or found; if there is anything that you want to sell, advertise in the PROGRESS. We will pay you. Ask Mr. James Ke, who has been trying to sell his farm for the last twelve months, or weeks ago, he inserted an "ad" in the PROGRESS to that effect, with the result that the farm has been sold. Mr. Blakeney, the purchaser, declares that it was the "ad" in the PROGRESS that attracted his attention.

THE UNION PICNIC.

The members of the various committees appointed to make the arrangements for the union picnic held at the Syndicate Farm, on Friday last, cannot but feel considerable satisfaction in the thought that the efforts they put forth to furnish an afternoon's entertainment were not in vain. A pretty was accompanied by those who appreciated a milder form of tocking. Jumping, lashing, crouching, etc., each had their devotees, and the athletes an opportunity to practice "the manly art of self-defence." Large supplies of ice cream and lemonade were forthcoming, the demand for these luxuries being something akin to a run on a bank. Ten time arrived in due course to enhance the enjoyment of the day and still further establish the reputation of the ladies as adepts in the culinary art. A moment's reflection as the scores of cakes were being cut was sufficient to convince any-others who were already homeward bound were caught upon the prairie, the pleasure of seeing it rain, however, went a long way towards counteracting the inconvenience of getting wet and dirty.
